

Defensive Driving Course

Attitudinal Dynamics of Driving (DDC-ADD)

The District Attorney wants you to become a better driver by attending and completing the 8 Hour DDC-ADD program for responsible driving. The program is made available by the Wake County Court System and the Safety and Health Council of North Carolina.

DDC-ADD is an 8 hour course that addresses the attitudes and behaviors of the negligent driver. Interactive exercises, lectures, visuals, and thought-provoking discussions are used to teach responsibility on the road.
