Class Description

DDC-Alive at 25 is a unique classroom training program. It speaks directly to young people about the dangers they face while driving- without pulling any punches. Participants are actively involved in frank, open discussions about peer pressure, attitudes, substance abuse, rules of the road, and taking responsibility. Topics include: speeding, following distance, sharing the road with large trucks and other vehicles, cell phone use, and safety belts. All students receive a 28-page course guide and certificate of completion.
